Other interests

There are a number of other occasions where a governor would need to declare an interest. If a governor is present at a meeting of the governing body of a school (including a meeting of a selection panel) at which the subject of consideration is, in the case of the governor him/herself or of a relative (including his/her spouse) living with him/her:

- that governor's appointment to a post at the school, or
- where that governor is employed at the school, his transfer from one post to another or his/her promotion or retirement, or
- the transfer from one post to another, dismissal, promotion, retirement or suspension of another person so employed, if the said transfer, dismissal, promotion, retirement, or suspension would result in a vacant post for which the governor would be a candidate, then the governor should declare an interest and withdraw from the meeting. Such action would also need to be taken if a governor has previously expressed an opinion or been directly involved in a matter relating to a disciplinary case, grievance or admission; or if the governor is related to, or is the spouse of, the person directly involved.

Register of Pecuniary Interests

Once you have completed this form please return it to the school where you are a governor or an employee.

Please remember you need to declare an interest if your relative or spouse (or someone living with you as if he or she were your spouse) would be considered to have an interest in any item discussed at a meeting. The definition of a relative includes spouse, partner, parent, parents-in-law, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, child of a partner, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece.

<sup>1</sup>You have a substantial interest if you own shares or other securities in the company with a nominal value of more than £25,000 or more than 1/100th of the issued shares or securities. The notional value is normally the face value on the share certificate and is not the market value. If in doubt contact your broker. If there are several classes of shares or securities, the fraction of 1/100th applies to any of those classes. These limits also apply to deposits with industrial and provident societies, and co-operative societies.
