

English

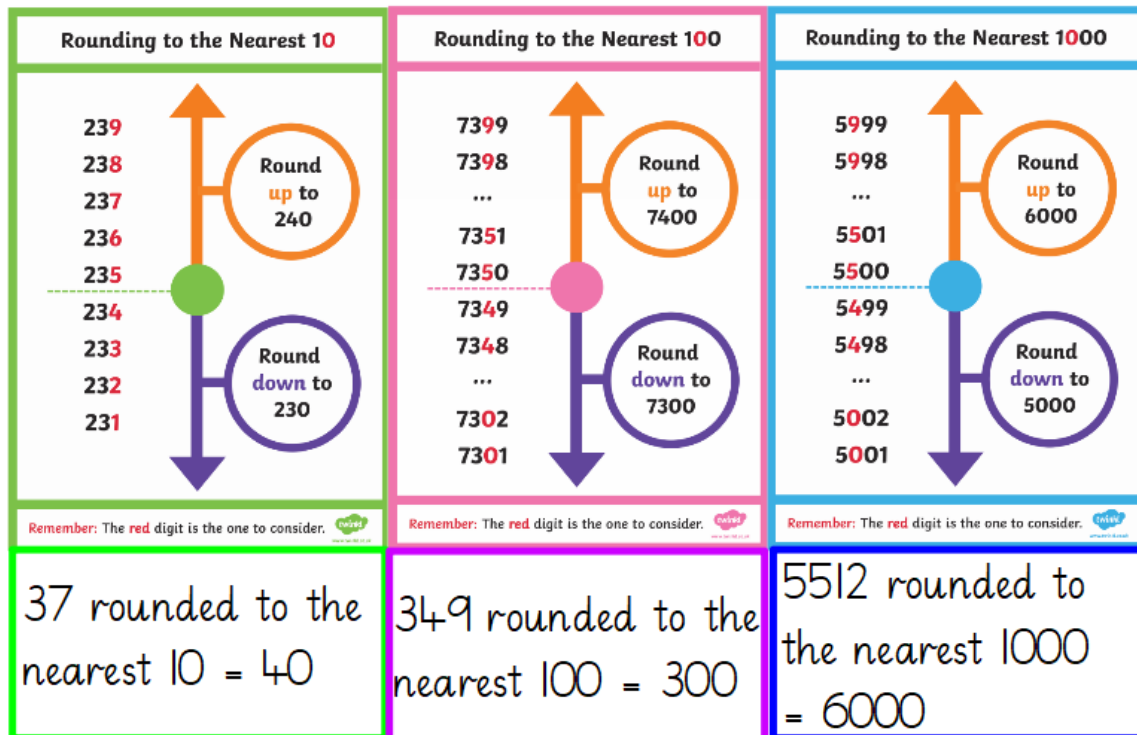

Write a recount of the story using conjunctions to extend your sentences.

Subordinating Conjunctions		Coordinating Conjunctions	Punctuation
after	although	for	. full stop
as	because	and	, comma
before	even though	nor	! exclamation mark
if	rather	but	' apostrophe
than	while	or	: colon
since	so that	yet
that	until	so
when	whenever wherever

Spellings

	Copy	Cover	Check
happily angrily merrily cheekily sleepily frantically dramatically

Maths –Rounding

A

Round the following to the nearest ten:

12
35
28
91
77
63
84
19
46

Round the following to the nearest hundred:

140
172
199
215
750
843

Challenge:

528 rounded to the nearest ten is 530, true or false? Explain why.

B

Round the following to the nearest ten:

52
95
48
61
176
167
289
213
544

Round the following to the nearest hundred:

240
176
319
895
650
741
1528

Round the following to the nearest thousand:

6392 5109 1582

C

Round the following to the nearest ten:

82
45
18
179
283
2554

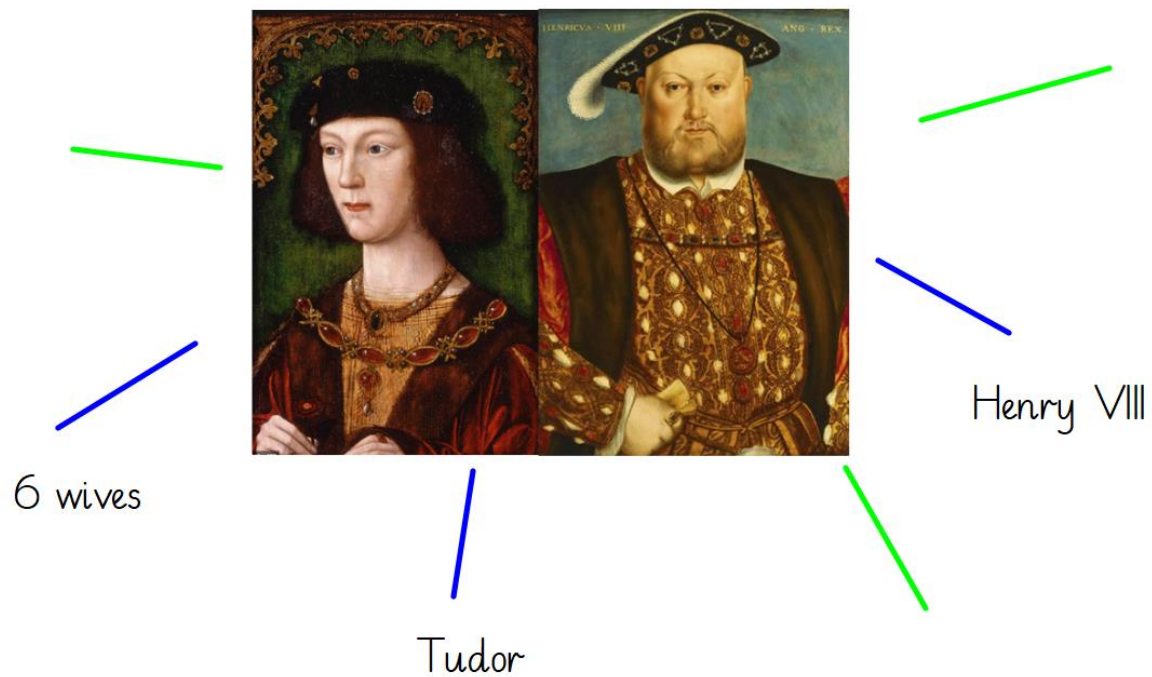

Round the following to the nearest hundred:

540
196
1319

6985
654
3147

Round the following to the nearest thousand:

2936
9015
2851
12742
26304
178600
521129

Create a mind map on Henry VIII, then write a paragraph to explain what you know about him. Use the sentence starters to help you.

Henry VIII was the son of.....

He lived during....

He had....